People of Barre, take notice: The new union in Barre and vicinity is known as Local No. 488, Musicians' Protective Union, of Barre (a branch of the American Federation of Musicians). When in need of first class music for all occasions, do not fail to patronize it.

The Bon-accord foot ball club held its annual reunion in Miles' hall last evening. Fifty couples were present and enjoyed themselves with dancing until a late hour. There was also a short program of songs and recitations given by members of the club. The committee which had charge of the arrangements was composed of J. Scott, G. Williamson, W. Brodie, J. Bramer, J. Smith and George Fowler.

George Earle of Williamstown was driving a young horse across the Barre railroad tracks on Prospect street yesterday morning, when the animal became frightened at an engine and bolted. The sleigh tipped up, throwing Mr. Earle out, but he hung to the reins and was dragged across the bridge and to the corner of the road that leads onto Burnham's meadow, where the horse wedged itself in between a telephone pole and the bank wall and was forced to stop. Mr. Earle was uninjured save for a shaking-up.
